

INTO THE NIGHT

Join us for a nocturnal journey through culture, conversation and ritual brought to you by LABA Fellows, Lab/Shul Storahellers, artists, musicians, teachers, and local rabbis.

6/3 7 PM – 6/4 7 AM. DUSK TO DAWN. FREE.

THEATER True Bible Stories Eleven ten-minute plays inspired by King David. Written by Robert Askins and directed by Benjamin Kamine. MUSIC Niggun Sing-Along Violin virtuoso Alicia Svigals will lead us in traditional and original wordless songs. ART Nowhere Now-Here Mirta Kupfermanc presents a new interactive photography project on migration. Contractions Actress and film producer Adi Ezroni tells six true stories about work/life imbalance from her first year as a parent. Dairy Dreams Erin Patinkin of Ovenly Bakery will create a special dairy delicacy. RITUAL Lab/Shul Secret Seven Amichai Lau-Lavie helps us discover a path to a more sustainable and sacred life. STUDY Mother Against All Odds LABA's Ruby Namdar leads us through the Book Ruth. The Psychology of Sinai Rabbi Darren Levine unpacks Sinai as a metaphor for personal development. The Feminine Personification of Torah Rabbi Gavriel Bellino will trace the history of these feminine characterizations of the Torah and reflect upon their implications. Angry Inches and Light Years Rabbi Jason Miller on the origins of love and the universe. Book of Job Dr. Glen Milstein & Rabbi Larry Seibert discuss the presence of science in religion in the text. CONVERSATIONS Israel as Motherland? Dr. Elan Ezrachi and Rabbi Shira Koch Epstein host conversation on challenging metaphors and evolving relationships. Social Change & Shavuot ZEEK Editor Erica Brody hosts Marjorie Dove Kent of JFREJ and writer-activist Sarah Seltzer to discuss Jewish change-making in NYC.

For the full program and a complete list of partners: www.14streety.org/tikkun

Generously supported by UJA-Federation of New York. Photo ID required for entry. Programs and food available for all levels of observance.

The 14th Street Y 344 East 14th Street (at 1st Avenue) New York, NY 10003 646.395.4310